EDITORIAL PREFACE

Assalamualaikum wr wb.

Praise be to Allah, the Almighty for giving His blessings and strength to the editorial team to concluded the publication of Enlighten: Jurnal Bimbingan Konseling Islam, Volume 3 Number 2, July-December 2020, even though the World is currently concerned by the Covid-19 outbreak. Also, prayer and greetings upon the Prophet Muhammad SAW as the model of life, and the first and foremost counselor on earth. Enlighten means enlightenment, and becomes a motto for editors to do their best. Remarkably, another thing to be thankful for is that since 2020, Enlighten has been indexed by DOAJ and ranked 4th by SINTA.

The editor hopes that Enlighten could be an enlightenment in the midst of the hustle and bustle of world life towards the afterlife. Enlighten focuses on Islamic guidance and counseling with sub-topics of world and hereafter life counseling. Enlighten intended to create a scientific road map of Islamic guidance and counseling that is increasingly in demand by the community and growing rapidly along with the industrial revolution 4.0 and the Covid-19 pandemic. In current issue, Enlighten published eight articles by guidance and counseling or Islamic guidance and counseling experts from 22 researchers from various universities in Indonesia. The focuses of the study are higher education counseling, school counseling, career counseling, IT in Counseling and Islamic psychotherapy. Therefore, it is justifiable for the editors to thank all the heads of IAIN Langsa, the Editorial Team, the authors, and the reviewers who have carried out their responsibilities accurately and excellently that current issue could be published. We hope this partnership can be continued for the improvement of Islamic Counseling in the future.

Finally, to the readers, we always believe that: "Even though we cannot see each other's faces, at least we can gather through Enlighten". Of course, constructive criticism and suggestions can be given by the reader to the editor, for improvement and development in the future.

Please Enjoy!

Wassalamualaikum wr. wb.
